A Special Remnant Day

AND there are hundreds of opportunities to buy something for a household or personal use

At Half, Nearly Half and Less Than Half Price.

Desiring to close out, as far as possible, all summer goods and garments this week, we have, during the past few days, been ransacking the various departments—overhauling the stocks with more thoroughness than usual, to get in the best possible shape for the offering of the various lines of new fall goods now coming on.

The columns to-day tell of the bargains that have turned up. Every department in the house is represented.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

September Becomes a Month of Weddings.

MISS HARDESTY A BRIDE

Married to Clarence Grant Cleaves, of Pittsburgh—Engagement of Miss Isabel May to Count von Hatzfeldt—Attorney General and Mrs. Bonaparte to Entertain This Fall.

At the residence of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. William Garretson Hardesty, 142 Clifton street, their daughter, Miss Ethelyn M. Hardesty, was married to Mr. Clarence Grant Cleaves, of Pittsburgh, last evening at 8 o'clock.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Nelson E. Cleaves, a brother of the bridegroom, was witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends and was followed by a reception. Miss Priscilla Hardesty, a sister of the bride, was her maid of honor, and Miss Stella Heilmann was ring bearer. Mr. Davis S. Swaney, of Pittsburgh, was the best man, and Benson C. Hardesty, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., brother of the bride, was the only usher.

A pretty setting of palms, intermingled with branches of foliage and starred with pink asters, formed the background for the bride party and the decorations used in the dining-room and hallways were of pink and green. A large basket holding pink asters, from which long streamers extended, formed the centerpiece on the table.

The wedding party entered the drawing-room at the first strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Edith May Hardesty, of Wilmington, Del., an accomplished pianist, and little Miss Ethelyn Callaway who played the violin. The wedding gown was a dainty creation of white Brussels net, built on white tulle and trimmed with point lace. A coronet of roses held in place the filmy tulle veil, which fell in graceful folds to the hem of the wedding gown, and the bride's bouquet was a shower of Bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor also wore a costume of Brussels net, the foundation of blossom pink tulle. The little ring bearer wore a dainty frock of pink museline.

Late in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Cleaves left Washington for a wedding trip to Richmond and cities in the South, after which they will go to Maine by water.

Mrs. Cleaves were for traveling a handsome tailor suit of brown with hat and minor appointments to match.

They will later go to Wilkesboro, Pa., where they will make their future home. The bride is a graduate of Dickinson College, class of '02 and a member of the Phi Beta Phi fraternity. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Dickinson College, class '04, and law school, '06, and a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

There is a persistent rumor to the effect that the engagement of Miss Isabel May, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Henry May, to Count von Hatzfeldt, counselor of the German Embassy, will shortly be announced. Friends of the young couple for some time have expected this and the matter is one of much interest in Washington, where they are both well known and popular.

Miss May made her debut here two years ago, and has since spent much time abroad, in England and Paris.

She has also a very considerable international relationship by marriage, as a number of members of her father's and her mother's families have married foreigners. Miss Lillian May, sister of Col. Henry May, and daughter of Henry May, of Baltimore, was married to Lord Charles Bagot, of England, in 1905, and was granted a divorce from him during the last few weeks. Miss Coleman, sister of Mrs. May, was married some years ago to the Count d'Audigne, of Paris, and recently came to Washington and occupied her stately home on K street adjoining the May home, and disposed of all the magnificent, valuable antique furniture and ornaments, returning to Paris to make her permanent home.

Miss Isabel May is one of the most attractive young women in society here, a beauty of wide reputation, and a girl of much cultivation. She is a member of the most exclusive social circles in America. She will be possessed of large wealth, too, a matter of some importance to members of her family.

Count Hatzfeldt is a member of the most distinguished German family. His mother was an American woman, and he came to Washington a year ago, not by any means a stranger. He took the house of Mr. and Mrs. Ames, at the corner of Twenty-first and H streets, where he has maintained a charming bachelor's hall.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Bonaparte, who have spent the summer at Lenox, are expected to return to their place near Baltimore to-day. While the Attorney General will spend most of his time in Washington, Mrs. Bonaparte will remain until late in the autumn in the country, and according to their custom will entertain week-end parties throughout the fall.

Miss Edith Jane Tupper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Tupper, and Mr. Harold John Caul, of Vega Alta, Porto Rico, were married yesterday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, 504 North Carolina avenue southeast. The bride wore a handsome tailor suit of cream colored cloth, with a large white hat trimmed with long ostrich feathers, and the wedding bouquet, a shower of lilies of the valley, was suspended from a white prayer book. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard Shipley, pastor of North Carolina Avenue Methodist Church.

POPULAR IN SOCIETY.

Miss Winifred Mattingly.

Miss Winifred Mattingly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Mattingly, who is now at Narragansett Pier, is one of the handsomest young women in Washington, and since her debut several years ago has been the leading spirit in all social affairs. This picture shows Miss Mattingly in costume representing Queen Elizabeth, the part she took in amateur theatricals given for charity in Washington a year ago last winter. Among the many faithful portrayals of celebrated beauties, Miss Mattingly was one of the most admired. She spent the summer at various resorts and has been in a number of smart house parties both in the North and South throughout the summer.

Mr. Tupper escorted his daughter and gave her in marriage. Little Helen Tupper, the four-year-old sister of the bride, was her only attendant, as flower girl. She wore a babyish frock of white muslin and valencienne lace and carried a basket of flowers. Only a small assemblage of relatives witnessed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Caul left Washington for a Northern wedding trip to include visits to Canada, Buffalo, and Niagara Falls. They will return to Washington for a brief visit to relatives before sailing, September 14, for Porto Rico, where they will make their future home, the bridegroom being a fruit grower there.

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Depue to Mr. Howard H. Dalzell took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Gleason.

Miss Margaret Depue, sister of the bride, served as her honor maid, and Mr. A. R. Harkness was best man. Rev. James M. Nourse was the officiating clergyman. An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Dalzell took a late train for a Northern wedding trip.

Mrs. Grace D. Parker announces the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. Hodge Butler. The wedding, for which no date has been set, will take place in the autumn.

Former Representative Joseph Sibley and Mrs. Sibley, who are now at their summer place at Valcour, N. Y., expect to sail late in the autumn for a trip to Egypt and the Holy Land.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate the anniversary of the organization of their society at Jamestown this year. An invitation from the Virginia Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution to a reception to be given in the Virginia Building on October 11, has just been received by the State regent for the D. A. R. of the District of Columbia.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Rhett Stuart and daughter have returned from Atlantic City where they have been spending the summer.

Mrs. E. J. Liston and family, after spending several weeks at Colonial Beach, will return home at the end of the season.

Mrs. Laurence Kenny and children, accompanied by Miss Margaret Sullivan, after two weeks at Colonial Beach, will return home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rosenthal, of 1906 Bolton street, Baltimore, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Fannie H., to Samuel J. Steinberger, of this city. They will be at home Sunday, September 22, from 4 to 8 and 10 to 12, at 1906 Bolton street, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair, Mrs. H. Morgan Hill, and Miss Morgan Hill are in New York for a few days, en route to Washington after the summer outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Bradley, who have spent the summer at Lenox, Mass., will go to their cottage at Tuxedo for the autumn. Later they will come to Washington. Their home in Dupont circle, which is now being remodeled, will be one of the most pretentious houses in the city when completed.

Brig. Gen. Henry G. Sharpe, U. S. A., and Mrs. Sharpe, who have spent the summer abroad, sailed yesterday for America, and will arrive in Washington September 20.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Curtis Smith have returned to the city.

Dr. M. Louise Strobel has just returned from Mountain Lake Park, where she has been for the last three weeks.

Mr. George A. Williamson and Mr. James R. Davis have returned to Washington, after a ten days' vacation at Saratoga, New York City, Jamestown, and Norfolk. The trip was made by steamer.

Howard Hayes Dalzell, son of Booth Dalzell, of Philadelphia and Miss Kathryn Depue, of Manassas, Va., were married last night at Manassas, Va., in the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Morris B. Morris, of Calvert street, is visiting her grandparents, at Staunton, Va. Her cousin, James W. Bodley, will pay her a visit at her Washington home about the middle of this month.

Miss Marguerite Fitzsimmons is spending the month of September visiting near Pittsburgh, Pa.

PUPILS' WORK SHOWN

Exhibition Opened at the Franklin School.

VARIED DISPLAY PRESENTED

Public Is Invited to Inspect the Articles Made During the Vacation Period by Playgrounds—Collection Includes Everything from Clay Images to Crocheted Slippers.

That the children of the Playgrounds Association have not devoted their entire time and energy to play can be easily seen by a visit to the Franklin School Building, where the hawdwork done by the youngsters during the summer is an exhibition.

All yesterday the directors of the playgrounds were busy in the lower classrooms of the building arranging the products of their charges so that they might show to best advantage. They changed things here and there and tried first one wall and then the other, they tacked a million tacks and then "untacked" half as many.

The casual male visitor may have thought some of the women a bit fussy about things, but when the work was done and the walls covered with wicker and needlework, even the supercilious could hardly have suggested a misplacement. Perspective was perfect, for the directors had backed to the other end of the room and examined that part of the setting. The light struck everything exactly as it should, for the women had squinted and seen to that part with shaded eyes. Every pretty thing was brought out to advantage, and, well pleased, the directors left their completed work to the visitors.

The work itself demonstrates that the children have been far from idle during the summer and that they have had excellent direction. Baskets such as the wicker workers of the Orient might envy have been twisted and fashioned into the most unique and attractive shapes. Others are made to be serviceable and they will no doubt fulfill their object. Bedroom slippers have been knitted with infinite care and mittens and dollies and all sorts of ornaments adorn the walls, while clay images and other specimens of ingenuity and work fill the entire series of class rooms.

The directors are especially anxious that the public see the work that has been done by the children and for this reason will throw open the doors of the school from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. every day until September 13.

TIME FOR VACCINATION.

Dr. Woodward Issues Notice Parents Must Comply with Law.

Dr. W. C. Woodward, health officer of the District, yesterday forwarded to the board of education a communication calling attention to the necessity of vaccination of pupils of the public schools. Every child attending the public schools must have either been successfully vaccinated or have had the smallpox. Dr. Woodward, therefore, suggested that steps be taken to acquaint the parents with this fact.

Certificates to this effect are required from physicians, and those children who cannot afford to pay for the operation may be vaccinated by the physicians to the poor or at the public dispensaries.

LIEUT. VINCENT GUILTY.

Sentenced to Loss of Twenty Numbers and a Reprimand.

The Navy Department has received the record and findings in the case of Lieut. Roe W. Vincent, who was recently tried by court-martial and sentenced to a loss of twenty numbers in his grade and to be reprimanded. Lieut. Vincent, who is attached to the Colorado, was charged with intoxication while on duty.

The testimony showed that he left his ship at Chafco, and when he returned and went on duty was too drunk to perform service. The board was convened by Rear Admiral Dayton, the commander-in-chief of the Asiatic fleet, and the findings approved by him. Action by the Navy Department was not necessary.

No Dry Dock at Vladivostok.

Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry yesterday emphatically denied the report sent from St. Petersburg, and printed in the effect that the United States had leased for five years a coaling station in Norfolk Bay, and had also leased for a year the Russian floating dry dock at Vladivostok. "The Vladivostok dry dock would be just about as much use to the navy as a canal on Mars," was Mr. Newberry's comment.
